

Purchasing made simple!

Use your procurement system to connect to Graybar.com and access the products you need to add to your requisition list.

Key Features

- Continuously updating product availability
- Access to online product search and order management
- Review price and availability for items or get in-depth product information
- Established ERP system connections with most third-party vendors
- Request for quote and easily convert to cart
- Ability to create customer-specific views, including:
 - » Pricing – your prices are displayed 24/7
 - » Products – customizable product view or complete catalog
 - » Custom catalogs – assist users in finding preferred products quickly and easily
 - » Branding – your logo prominently displayed alerts users they've reached the correct page
- Graybar is able to support multiple levels of PunchOut
 - » PunchOut
 - » PunchOut Level II – Product Level

Customer Benefits

- Enhances productivity due to faster order processing and online automation
- Encourage adherence to business processes with a consistent catalog and product set
- Cost control and product management and reporting
- All product information is collected online
- Reduction in errors

System Requirements

- Ability to support most browsers

Graybar Sustainability

Reduced errors in purchasing means less wasted resources in transporting and storing unused product, thus reducing the impact on our environment.

Contact your local Graybar sales representative today!